LIST OF VOTERS

In order to insure that all eligible voters may have the opportunity to be informed of the issues in the exercise of their statutory right to vote, all parties to the election should have access to a list of voters and their addresses which may be used to communicate with them. Excelsior Underwear, Inc., 156 NLRB 1236 (1966); NLRB. Wyman-Gordan Company, 394 U.S. 759 (1969). Regional Director, Region 20

- 1/ The Union's name appears as described in its collective-bargaining agreement with the Employer.
- 2/ No representative of the Union appeared at the hearing. The record reflects that the petition and notice of the hearing were served on the Union by first-class mail on October 18, 2004. Thereafter, on October 20, 2004, the parties were served by first-class mail with notice that the hearing was rescheduled from October 22 to October 29, 2004. In these circumstances, I find that the decision of the hearing officer to proceed with the hearing in the absence of a representative of the Union did not constitute prejudicial error.
- 3/ Administrative notice is taken of Case 20-UD-425 wherein on June 4, 2002, I directed that an election be held among the Employer's employees in the unit at issue herein. As there is no evidence that the Employer's revenues from providing services to entities directly engaged in commerce have diminished, I find that the Employer is engaged in commerce and that it will effectuate the policies of the Act to assert jurisdiction in this matter.
- 4/ The unit appears as described in the most recent collective-bargaining agreement between the Employer and the Union.
